Master's Degree, King Mongkut's University of Technology Thonburi

APR, 2013 — MAR, 2018

King Mongkut's Institute of Technology Ladkrabang is a research and educational institution in Thailand. It is situated in Lat Krabang District, Bangkok approximately 30 km east of the city center.

Bangkok Patana School

Apr, 2007 — Mar, 2013

Bangkok Patana School is not just the first British educational institute in Thailand, It has, since its founding, remained one of South East Asia's most respected schools. Offering a wide spectrum of education from Foundation Level all the way up to years 11, 12 and 13. This gives parents confidence that their child is receiving a holistic kind of education. Naturally using the British curriculum, Bangkok Patana School prides itself on supporting its student both in their educational life and other areas of their personal life.
Bangkok Patana School sits in a prime position to offer the very highest quality of education for Thailand's children.
